Chico Rancheria Housing Corporation
Move-In Assistance Policy

I. PURPOSE

The Chico Rancheria Housing Corporation has established a Move-In Assistance Program that enables the corporation to better serve the housing needs of tribal members. The program provides rental housing assistance consisting of the first month's rent and security deposit to qualified tribal members living in the defined Indian Area. This assistance program can be utilized twice in a lifetime with a four year period between the first usage and the last usage.

Chico Rancheria Housing Corporation has established the following goals to meet the needs of tribal members:

- A. To provide safe, sanitary and decent affordable housing to low-income tribal members who are able to meet the monthly payment obligation, with or without tenant-based rental assistance, but lack funding for the first month's rent and security deposit.
- B. To assist tribal members in locating a rental unit that is adequate for family size and near schools and the work place.
- C. To help alleviate the financial burden on low-income tribal members when found to be in need of adequate housing.
- D. To remove tribal members from potentially harmful situations that may occur due to the possibility of homelessness.
- E. To meet the housing needs of a greater number of tribal members by maximizing the resources under NAHASDA.

II. POLICY

A. Definitions

1. All Areas of the United States.

All areas of the United States includes all continental states, Alaska, Hawaii, and any and all lands held in Trust by the U.S. Department of Interior including Indian Reservations within the continental states and Alaska and Hawaii.

2. Annual Income.

Annual income is the anticipated total income from all sources received by the family head and spouse (even if temporarily absent) and by each additional adult member of the family during the coming 12-month period, as defined for HUD's Section 8 programs in 24 CFR part 5, subpart.

(a) Annual income means all amounts, monetary or not, which:

- (1) Go to, or on behalf of, the family head or spouse (even if temporarily absent) or to any other family member over the age of 18; or
- (2) Are anticipated to be received from a source outside the family during the 12-month period following admission or annual reexamination effective date; and

Chico Rancheria Housing Corporation
Move-In Assistance Policy

(3) Which are not specifically excluded in paragraph (c) of this section.

(4) Annual income also means amounts derived (during the 12-month period) from assets to which any member of the family has access.

(b) Annual income includes, but is not limited to:

(1) The full amount, before any payroll deductions, of wages and salaries, overtime pay, commissions, fees, tips and bonuses, and other compensation for personal services;

(2) The net income from the operation of a business or profession. Expenditures for business expansion or amortization of capital indebtedness shall not be used as deductions in determining net income. An allowance for depreciation of assets used in a business or profession may be deducted, based on straight line depreciation, as provided in Internal Revenue Service regulations. Any withdrawal of cash or assets from the operation of a business or profession will be included in income, except to the extent the withdrawal is reimbursement of cash or assets invested in the operation by the family;

(3) Interest, dividends, and other net income of any kind from real or personal property. Expenditures for amortization of capital indebtedness shall not be used as deductions in determining net income. An allowance for depreciation is permitted only as authorized in paragraph (b)(2) of this section. Any withdrawal of cash or assets from an investment will be included in income, except to the extent the withdrawal is reimbursement of cash or assets invested by the family. Where the family has net family assets in excess of $5,000, annual income shall include the greater of the actual income derived from all net family assets or a percentage of the value of such assets based on the current passbook savings rate, as determined by HUD;

(4) The full amount of periodic amounts received from Social Security, annuities, insurance policies, retirement funds, pensions, disability or death benefits, and other similar types of periodic receipts, including a lump-sum amount or prospective monthly amounts for the delayed start of a periodic amount (except as provided in paragraph (c)(14) of this section);

(5) Payments in lieu of earnings, such as unemployment and disability compensation, worker's compensation and severance pay (except as provided in paragraph (c)(3) of this section);

(6) Welfare assistance payments.

(i) Welfare assistance payments made under the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program are included in annual income only to the extent such payments:

(A) Qualify as assistance under the TANF program definition at 45 CFR 260.31; and

Chico Rancheria Housing Corporation
Move-In Assistance Policy

(B) Are not otherwise excluded under paragraph (c) of this section.

(ii) If the welfare assistance payment includes an amount specifically designated for shelter and utilities that is subject to adjustment by the welfare assistance agency in accordance with the actual cost of shelter and utilities, the amount of welfare assistance income to be included as income shall consist of:

(A) The amount of the allowance or grant exclusive of the amount specifically designated for shelter or utilities; plus

(B) The maximum amount that the welfare assistance agency could in fact allow the family for shelter and utilities. If the family's welfare assistance is ratably reduced from the standard of need by applying a percentage, the amount calculated under this paragraph shall be the amount resulting from one application of the percentage.

(7) Periodic and determinable allowances, such as alimony and child support payments, and regular contributions or gifts received from organizations or from persons not residing in the dwelling;

(8) All regular pay, special pay and allowances of a member of the Armed Forces (except as provided in paragraph (c)(7) of this section).

(c) Annual income does not include the following:
