Lease-to-Own Program Policy

CHICO RANCHERIA HOUSING CORPORATION

Lease-to-Own Program Policy

SECTION I. PURPOSE

The goal of the Chico Rancheria Housing Corporation (CRHC) is to provide affordable housing for qualified families in a safe and healthy environment. The goal of the Lease-to-Own Program is for such qualified families to become homeowners after meeting the obligations set forth within the Lease Purchase Agreement and within this Program Policy over a period of time. This policy outlines and provides clarification on the procedures of the process, which is administered by CRHC.

Once eligibility for admission has been established and a family moves into a unit administered by the CRHC, Lessees and their families are expected to abide by all occupancy standards established by CRHC within this policy until the home is conveyed to the lessee and the lessee becomes a homeowner. This policy provides Lessees and their families with the framework and guidelines necessary to ensure a safe and healthy living environment for ALL those who are living within Lease-to-Own homes as well as the neighbors of such homes and communities. It is also intended to protect the Tribe’s investment in its housing resources by detailing the Lessees’ “Rights and Responsibilities” while participating in housing programs as well as the “Rights and Responsibilities” of the CRHC and the Tribe.

SECTION II. APPLICABILITY

This policy has been designed to:

- (1) Comply with Federal Housing Statutes and Regulations
- (2) Serve as a guide, for CRHC Staff, its Agents, and the Board of Directors to use for enforcing occupancy standards of the Lease-to-Own Program Administered by the CRHC.
- (3) Provide for consistent, fair, equitable, and uniform treatment of Lessees
- (4) Provide a basis for decision-making by CRHC Staff and Members of the Board of Directors
- (5) Serve as a training and orientation manual for newly hired Staff and appointed Board of Directors members.
- (6) Educate CRHC Lessees and the public on the basis for CRHC decisions made both by the Board and Staff.

SECTION III. POLICY

A. Definitions

1. Annual Income.

Annual income is the anticipated total income from all sources received by the family head and spouse (even if temporarily absent) and by each additional adult member of the family during the coming twelve (12) month period, as defined for HUD’s Section 8 programs in 24 CFR part 5, subpart.

CHICO RANCHERIA HOUSING CORPORATION

Lease-to-Own Program Policy

1 (a) Annual income means all amounts, monetary or not, which:

- 2 (1) Go to, or on behalf of, the family head or spouse (even if temporarily absent) or 3 to any other family member over the age of eighteen (18); or 4
5 (2) Are anticipated to be received from a source outside the family during the 6 twelve (12) month period following admission or annual reexamination
7 effective date; and
8
9 (3) Are not specifically excluded in paragraph (c) of this section.
10
11 (4) Annual income also means amounts derived during the twelve (12) month
12 period from assets to which any member of the family has access.
13

14 (b) Annual income includes, but is not limited to:

- 15
16 (1) The full amount, before any payroll deductions, of wages and salaries, 17 overtime pay, commissions, fees, tips and bonuses, and other compensation for 18 personal services;
19
20 (2) The net income from the operation of a business or profession. Expenditures
21 for business expansion or amortization of capital indebtedness shall not be used
22 as deductions in determining net income. An allowance for depreciation of 23 assets used in a business or profession may be deducted, based on straight line
24 depreciation, as provided in Internal Revenue Service regulations. Any 25 withdrawal of cash or assets from the operation of a business or profession will 26 be included in income, except to the extent the withdrawal is reimbursement
27 of cash or assets invested in the operation by the family;
28
29 (3) Interest, dividends, and other net income of any kind from real or personal 30 property. Expenditures for amortization of capital indebtedness shall not be

34 except to the extent the withdrawal is reimbursement of cash or assets

36 $5,000, annual income shall include the greater of the actual income derived 37 from all net family assets or a percentage of the value of such assets based on

3. Security Deposit

(a) Principle Purchase Price

The purchase price shall be based on the total cost of the unit. The total cost of the unit shall include the total purchase price and all the original closing costs including upfront insurances and taxes paid at the original closing when the Tribe purchased the unit. When this figure is ambiguous due to the nature or history of the project, the unit’s share of the total development cost of the project shall be used as the principle purchase price or other reasonable figure.

Example:

Purchase Price of Home = $220,000
+ Closing = $ 10,000
Lease to Own Principle = $230,000

(b) Administrative Fee

While there is no interest attached to this program, a ten percent (10%) administrative fee is charged to the Lease to Own Principle over the period of the lease term. This amount is added to the monthly payment over the course of the lease.

Example:

Lease to Own Principle = $230,000
Administrative Fee = $ 23,000
Total Payoff Amount = $253,000

(c) Lease Term, Amortization Schedule, & Monthly Payment

The term of the lease and corresponding amortization schedule shall be based on the principle purchase price.

- (1) In the example given above, the principle amount is $230,000. This figure is then divided by the number of months it will take to reduce the principle to zero, which shall be equivalent the term (number of months) of the Lease Purchase Agreement. Terms can be flexible when entering into the Lease Purchase Agreement and can range up to a maximum of thirty (30) years (360 months).
- (2) Continuing with the example given, by dividing the principle amount ($230,000) by the number of months (360) the monthly principle payment is established. In this case, it equals $638.89 per month.

(3) The administrative fee is equal to ten (10%) of the principle ($23,000) or $63.89 per month.

Example: $230,000 x 0.10 = $23,000; $23,000/360 = $63.89 per month

(4) The total monthly payment sums to $702.78. This figure cannot exceed thirty percent (30%) of adjusted household income.

Example: $638.89 + 63.89 = $702.78

5. Taxes

CRHC shall file appropriate tax exemptions and or make payments in lieu of taxes during the term of the lease. Once the home is conveyed, taxes will become the responsibility of the home owner. While during the term of the lease, when the Lessee is in the program, the unit may be tax-exempt. However, once the home is conveyed, there is no exemption for the homeowner.

6. Insurance

(a) CRHC Responsibilities. CRHC shall provide adequate hazard insurance during the term of the lease. The insurance covers damage to the structure from fire or other hazard, but does not cover the loss of household or personal items in the Housing Unit. It is important to note that that coverage is for repair / replacement of the “structure” ONLY in the event of natural disaster (i.e., fire, earthquake, flood, etc...) and NOT the “personal contents” of the lessee.

(b) Lessee Responsibilities. If Lessee wants additional insurance to cover household or personal items in the Housing Unit, he or she must acquire and pay for the additional insurance at his or her own expense. It is the responsibility of the Lessee to obtain their own personal property / contents insurance.

26 27 K. SUCCESSION UPON DEATH OR MENTAL INCAPACITY

28 29 1. Successors and Protocol

30 While one does NOT like to think about the possibility of losing a loved one for any reason, it
31 does happen. Often times, Tribal Enrollment status and the tribe's desire to provide enrolled
32 tribal members with PRIORITY in housing also becomes an issue in these situations.
33 Additionally, we have found that all too often, minor children are caught in the middle. In 34 order to ensure tribal members continue to receive priority, and to keep disruption to the 35 family at a minimum, the following guidelines shall be followed:
36

37 (a) Lessee's Rights to Designate a Successor. The Lessee may name a designated successor
38 to the terms of the Lease Purchase Agreement in writing, pursuant to current CRHC
39 policies in which such successor must be eligible under the terms of the Lease Purchase
40 Agreement, Lease-to-Own Policy, and Eligibility and Admission Policy.

41 (b) Standard Succession. In the event of death or mental incapacity of the Lessee, the person
42 designated as the successor shall be evaluated in accordance with the requirements
43 under this policy and the Eligibility and Admission Policy. If the successor meets all
44 eligibility requirements for the Lease to Own Program, the unit and remaining principle
45 shall be transferred under a new Lease Purchase Agreement to the successor.

CHICO RANCHERIA HOUSING CORPORATION

Lease-to-Own Program Policy

(c) If the successor meets general eligibility requirements but does not meet the specific requirements for the Lease-to-Own Program, the unit may be transferred the Low Income Rental Program and the successor may be offered to enter into a Rental Agreement.

(d) If there is no successor designated, the successor is no longer living, or the successor does not meet the standards of eligibility, CRHC may consider any adult household member who was an occupant at the time of the event and who meets the eligibility standards to succeed in the Lease Purchase Agreement and execute a Lease Purchase Agreement or enter into the Low-Income Rental Program and execute a Rental Agreement.

(e) If there is no qualified successor and no other household members meet eligibility requirements in accordance with the Eligibility and Admission Policy and applicable program policy, CRHC shall terminate the Lease Purchase Agreement and require the remaining family members to vacate the unit.

(f) If a minor child or children of the Lessee’s household are in occupancy, and in order to protect their continued occupancy within the unit, CRHC may approve legal guardians of the children to enter into the Low-Income Rental Occupancy Program and enter into a Rental Agreement.

L. PROGRAM VIOLATIONS

1. General.

2. Common Program Violations.

The following examples illustrate some of the ways in which Lessees commit PROGRAM VIOLATIONS.

NOTE: This does NOT constitute a “complete” list of examples.

- (a) Vacating the dwelling unit (i.e., ABANDONMENT).
(b) Failing to keep utilities in service to the dwelling unit.
(c) Failing to use or maintain the dwelling unit or property as required.

10 NOTE: This does NOT constitute a “complete” list of examples.

29
30 4. CRHC’s Actions Following a Violation.

31 (a) When a Lessee commits a program violation, the CRHC staff or its agent shall notify the 32 Lessee of the violation in writing. Action taken by the CRHC may vary depending on the 33 nature of the violation. In some cases, it may be a letter sent to the Lessee, or, in other
34 cases, it may be a formal notice served the Lessee in accordance with current California
35 Law or a combination of the both. In any case, the CRHC or its agent shall strive to 36 provide the violator with the following information:

37 (1) Date of Violation (or approximate date if unknown).

38 (2) Nature of the Violation. Explain what part/s of the Lease Purchase Agreement
39 and/or this Policy were violated.

40 (3) Consequences of Violation. If the violation is not cured within the specific time
41 frame provided, the consequences for not performing shall be conveyed.
42
43
44
45

Lease-to-Own Program Policy

1
2 (4) Right to File a Grievance. Point out the fact that the Lessee has the right,
3 unless stipulated elsewhere in an agreement or in policy, to file a Grievance
4 request in accordance with the current CRHC Grievance Policy.
5

6 (b) Criminal Violations. In those cases, where evidence indicates a fraudulent CRIMINAL
7 VIOLATION has occurred, the CRHC staff shall refer the matter to local law enforcement
8 agencies.
9

10 (c) Consequences of Failing to Correct a Violation. If corrections are NOT forthcoming, 11 CRHC or its agent shall Terminate the Lease Purchase Agreement in accordance with

34 intent to vacate, and if the Lessee so requests it, the CRHC or its agent shall schedule a 35 Pre-Move-Out Inspection. The purpose of this inspection is to let the Lessee know what 36 he / she can do with regards to cleaning and needed repairs or replacements (if any)
37 prior to vacating the dwelling unit.
38

39 (d) Vacating WITHOUT Proper Notice. If a Lessee vacates the dwelling unit without proper 40 notice to the CRHC or its agent, the Lessee shall remain subject to the obligations of the 41 Lease Purchase Agreement. This includes the obligation to make monthly payments until 42 the CRHC or its agent can "officially" terminate the Lease Purchase Agreement in

3 time the Lease Purchase Agreement was executed.
4

5 2. CRHC or its Agent Initiated Termination Procedures.

6
7 (a) General. In the event the Lessee fails to comply with any of the obligations in the Lease
8 Purchase Agreement and / or any obligation under this Policy, the CRHC or its agent MAY 9 terminate the Lease Purchase Agreement.
10

11 (b) Notification. If it becomes necessary for the CRHC or its agent to terminate the Lease
12 Purchase Agreement of a Lessee, the CRHC staff or its agent shall do so by giving the 13 Lessee a notice in accordance with current California Law.
14

15 (1) Failing to pay rent: The CRHC or its agent shall serve a Three (3) Day Notice to 16 Pay or Quit after the 5th day of the month. The Lessee shall have three (3) days

21

22 (3) Other Violations: The CRHC or agent shall serve a Three (3), Thirty (30), or Sixty 23 (60) Day Notice to Vacate, as applicable, when other circumstances warrant. The 24 Lease Purchase Agreement will expire upon notice expiration, and if the Lessee
25 does not vacate, legal action will be taken leading to Eviction.
26

27 (c) Criteria for Termination. The CRHC or its agent may only issue a Termination Notice if 28 the terms and conditions of the Lease Purchase Agreement have been violated. Some of 29 the common reasons for Termination include, but are NOT limited to, the following:

- (14) Harboring an unauthorized pet.
- (15) Failing to maintain the exterior grounds to the community standards, if applicable.
- (16) Failing to remove, or causing to remove, inoperable vehicles, appliances, furniture, etc. from the yard.
- (17) Failing to remove, or causing to remove, refuse or allowing excess debris to build up between garbage removals.
- (18) Failing to allow other residents in the community the peaceful enjoyment of their accommodations; etc.

Note: The CRHC or its agent shall investigate complaints that are received in writing on appropriate complaint forms on these issues (as noted above) and shall inform the Lessee that these complaints / concerns have been received by the CRHC or its agent. That notification shall be in WRITTEN form. Based on the nature of the complaint, CRHC staff or its agent may proceed with Termination of the Lease Purchase Agreement if the issue has NOT been resolved to CRHC’s satisfaction.

(d) In the event the Lease Purchase Agreement is terminated by the Lessee in accordance with this section, the Lessee shall forfeit any presumed figure of equity Lessee has accumulated in the Housing Unit and Lessee shall be liable for all the costs to return the Housing Unit to a safe and habitable condition equivalent to its original condition at the time the Lease Purchase Agreement was executed.

3. Abandonment.

The term “abandonment” is when the Lessee both physically leaves the premises and intends to permanently vacate. If the CRHC or its agent reasonably believes the Lessee has abandoned possession and the Lessee is fourteen (14) days or more delinquent in payment of rent, then the CRHC or its agent must serve a Notice of Belief of Abandonment, in the form prescribed by California Civil Code §1951.3. The notice can be served in the manner prescribed by Code of Civil Procedure §1162 or be certified of registered mail. If the Lessee

Lease-to-Own Program Policy

1 does not timely respond, the premises are deemed abandoned and the CRHC or its agent will
2 retake possession of the property without using the eviction process.

3
4 (a) The date of termination of the Lease Purchase Agreement shall be fifteen (15) days
5 after the notice is served personally or, if mailed, not less than eighteen (18) days 6 after the notice is deposited in the mail unless:

7
8 (1) At the time the Notice of Belief of Abandonment was given, the rent was not 9 due and unpaid for fourteen (14) consecutive days.

10
11 (2) At the time the Notice of Belief of Abandonment was given, it was not reasonable
12 for the CRHC or its agent to believe that the Lessee had abandoned the real
13 property. The fact that the CRHC or its agent knew that the Lessee left 14 personal property on the real property does not, of itself, justify a finding that 15 the CRHC or its agent did not reasonably believe that the Lessee had 16 abandoned the real property.

17
18 (3) Prior to the date specified in the Notice of Belief of Abandonment, the Lessee
19 gives written notice to the CRHC or its agent stating his intent not to abandon 20 the real property and stating an address at which he may be served by certified
21 mail in any action for unlawful detainer of the real property.

23 (4) During the period commencing fourteen (14) days before the time the Notice
24 of Belief of Abandonment was given and ending on the date the Lease Purchase
25 Agreement would have terminated pursuant to the notice, the Lessee paid to 26 the CRHC or its agent all or a portion of the rent due and unpaid on the real 27 property.

28
29 (b) In the event the Lease Purchase Agreement is terminated by the lessee in accordance 30 with this section, the Lessee shall forfeit any presumed figure of equity Lessee has 31 accumulated in the Housing Unit and Lessee shall be liable for all the costs to return the 32 Housing Unit to a safe and habitable condition equivalent to its original condition at the 33 time the Lease Purchase Agreement was executed.

34 35 36 4. Evictions.

37
38 (a) CRHC or its Agent Actions.

39
40 (1) In the event a Lessee fails to Move-Out, following receipt of the Appropriate
41 Termination Notification, the CRHC or its agent shall initiate EVICTION
42 proceedings against the Lessee.

43
44 (1) All EVICTION procedures shall be followed according to California State Civil 45 Code through the County Court.

Lease-to-Own Program Policy

1
2 (3) The CRHC staff or its agent shall notify the CRHC's Attorney of the Lessee's

7 summons shall be served accordingly by the attorney's agent within five (5) days.

10 Motion to Strike, or Demurrer (See California Code of Civil Procedure):
